Visitor's Guide

Simulation of reactive Thermo-Fluid Systems

Arrival

By Car

You can get to Darmstadt via the A5 autobahn (coming from Frankfurt or Heidelberg/Basel) or the A67 (coming from Cologne or Mannheim). Use the exit “Darmstadt – Stadtmitte”. In the city, follow the signs to “TU Lichtwiese”. Parking is available on campus.

By Train

Darmstadt Central Station is connected to the long-distance train network, including intercity and high-speed ICE trains. Regional trains are also available. The RB68 and RB60 connect to Mannheim, Heidelberg and Frankfurt. The RB75 can be used when traveling via Aschaffenburg or Wiesbaden. In the city, you can travel by taxi, bus and tram.

By Plane

Frankfurt International Airport is located 25 km north of the city and can be reached via the A5 autobahn within 20 minutes.

The most convenient way to and from the airport is the HEAG-Airliner, a direct shuttle bus from Terminals 1 & 2 to Darmstadt Central Station (Terminal 1: area B, stop no. 14; Terminal 2: directly at the exit). These leave every 30 minutes between 5 a.m. and 9 p.m. Tickets cost approx. €5.

Alternatively, there is a taxi transfer service. The fee is around €51. (“TAM-Flughafentransfer”, Phone: +49 6151 44722)

Taxis

Taxis can be called on +49 6151 19410. The cost is calculated at €4.00 a trip plus €2.20 per kilometer.

Public Transport

The Lichtwiese campus can be reached directly on tram 2 departing from Darmstadt Central Station. From the city center (bus stop “Luisenplatz”), the Lichtwiese campus can be reached on bus L.
